Fee: $55.00/week. Programs are for children ages 9-12. Museum contact: Jo Anne Arasim at 517/373-1905 or arasimj@michigan.gov

Monday: Michigan’s Native Americans—Learn about the rich cultural heritage and traditions of Michigan’s Native Americans as a member of the Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe shares stories and artifacts.

Tuesday: The War of 1812—Remember the Battle of the River Raisin? Do you know why Michigan men were involved in this war? Learn about the war, the life of a soldier in this war and why the War of 1812 is referred to as “America’s forgotten war.”

Wednesday: The Life of a Civil War Family—The men of your family are off to war and you are left to manage the home. Join a family of reenactors as they show how families in the 1860s survived during the Civil War.

Thursday: Michigan and the Spanish-American War—In the 1890s, Michigan soldiers were sent to a warm, tropical island. Their purpose? To fight a war on foreign soil. Learn more about their experiences as a costumed reenactor shares stories and artifacts related to the war.

Friday: The Life of a French Voyageur—Working 14 hour days, paddling a canoe at 55 strokes a minute and being able to carry 180 pounds of goods were just some of the requirements of being a voyageur.
